ASSAM COVID-19 RELIEF

SAHAYATA
TRUST

An overview

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic and the lockdown imposed to control it, people are facing financial crisis because of resulting unemployment and health issues. Slum-dwellers and daily laborers are the worst-hit as most of them have been left jobless due to the financial impact of the pandemic. In such testing times, Sahayata Trust's efforts focused on identifying those in need providing grocery kits, medicines and PPE kits to them.

Relief work in Assam slums

Sahayata Trust reached the slums in Assam to help those people in need. Dhubri (Chapar), Nagaon(Juria) and Kamrup (M) are the areas in Assam where most of the daily laborers reside. Sahayata Trust provided grocery kits to the poor and organized a 'feeding program' over two days in these three districts.

Some of the beneficiaries

Noor Banu, a childless widow and domestic worker from Kandhulimari village in Nagaon, was looked after by her brother working as a daily laborer in Kerala. Due to the lockdown, her brother could neither return home nor send any money to her. She had no source of money and had been on an empty stomach for two days when Sahayata Trust's team reached her. The relief team provided her with grocery items for two month's use.

Sokina Khatun, a 70-year-old, breast cancer patient from Kandhulimari village in Nagaon, is taken care of by her three sons working as daily laborers. Due to the lockdown, they were left jobless and had to use the little savings they had for her treatment. Her sons were getting more anxious and helpless with every extension of the lockdown. With no one to help them, they were facing severe food shortage when Sahayata Trust came to their help and relieved their anxiety by providing groceries.
