FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROVIDED TO A WOMAN IN DELHI

Mrs. Shakeela, was under a severe financial crisis due to the lock down. Her husband was employed in a factory, which was shut down due the lockdown imposed post the outbreak of Covid-19. He is presently diagnosed by Asthma and is incapable of doing any manual labor. The family of 5, living in a rented house, has endured serious hardships. She has 3 school going children, so they cannot earn a living. The responsibility of taking care of her husband and children, paying the rent and medical bills of her husband as well as securing food fell on Shakeela. Sahayata Trust learnt about her distress and decided to provide her the financial assistance to set up a shop at her home. About 79,000/- rupees was provided to set up her business. The business will make her independent and help her deal with financial burdens while taking care of her husband and children.
